

The Gospel According to Felicity Brady

Book Blurb

Down some steps, below a crumbling bridge, sits a scruffy old bookshop.

The day Felicity Brady discovers The Wishing Shelf, a magic bookshop in the small town of Twice Brewed, is the day her life is altered for ever.

A helpful clock and a mulish door allow her to travel to different lands where she plays Vipers and Stepladders, pilots flying carpets and visits creepy Cauldron City. There are Krakor Thunder Serpents, waltzing books, even a copy of 'Be Warty, Be Proud,' perched on the cistern in the loo.

Armed with an inquisitive mind and the magical powers of a wet doyley. Felicity must face monster Dorfmorons, Woolly Glumsnappers and power crazed wizards. And to top it all off, spotty Melvyn Moon is trying to marry her, she has a crush on Hickory Crawl (a 127-year-old crook) and Jumble Mud smells of trout.

Felicity Brady's life really is a can of Cruor Worms.

LET THE STRUGGLE BEGIN!

Illustration © Paul Muddle

From

The Literacy Club

Inspire > Enjoy > Succeed

www.theliteracyclub.com