

Name _____

Date _____

If boots could talk...

“But I can’t wear these! They’re gross!” Jake pushed the heavy old boots back into the box.

In the story Magic Boots, Jake is given Great-Grandpa Dan’s old football boots – but at first he doesn’t want to wear them. Imagine that Great-Grandpa Dan’s boots could talk. What would they say to Jake to persuade him to wear them? Write down some ideas here.

Jake, you must wear me because _____

I am the best boots any footballer could ever want because

When Great-Grandpa Dan wore me he played like a

I might be an old pair of boots, Jake, but I am magic because

Please wear me so you can

Illustration © Sarah Preston/www.childrensillustrators.com

From
The Literacy Club
Inspire > Enjoy > Succeed
www.theliteracyclub.com